NOTICE: INVITATION TO GIVE FEEDBACK ON CPD PHASE 3 CONSULTATION PAPER

The Singapore Institute of Legal Education ('Institute') has released the Consultation Paper on the Continuing Professional Development Scheme (Phase 3).

2. The Institute invites members of the legal community and all other interested parties to provide feedback on the questions raised in the Consultation Paper, as well as any other views in relation to the CPD scheme.

3. The key proposals set forth in the Consultation Paper are as follows:

- a. Phase 3 will commence on 1 January 2017;
- b. Phase 3 will involve the extension of the CPD scheme to the most senior category of lawyers, i.e. those with 15 or more years of post-admission experience; and
- c. The most senior category of lawyers will start off with a requirement to obtain 4 CPD Points (at least 2 of which must be Public CPD Points). This corresponds with about 4 hours of learning activities each year.

4. The Consultation Paper is available at:

https://www.silecpdcentre.sg/documents/consultation/SILE_Consultation_Paper_on_Phase_3_Implementation_of_CPD_Scheme.pdf

The Online Feedback Form is available at:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/CPDPhase3Consultation>

A Feedback Form in Word format is available at:

https://www.silecpdcentre.sg/Documents/Consultation/CPD_Phase_3_Consultation_Paper_Feedback_Form.docx

5. The use of the Online Feedback Form is encouraged. Feedback Form submissions in Word format should be emailed to the Institute (Attention: Director of Continuing Professional Development) at cpd.consultation@sile.sg.

Feedback should be submitted by 5pm on Friday, 15 April 2016.
