DID YOU KNOW…

YOU CAN UNDERTAKE E-LEARNING TO OBTAIN PRIVATE CPD POINTS?

Why e-Learning?

e-Learning can be a convenient way to obtain your Private CPD Points. Many e-learning programmes are free or low-cost, and can be viewed virtually anywhere and at any time using a computer or a smartphone with internet access.

Points Calculation

20 min

You may obtain 1 Private CPD Point for each hour of a video you review. The number of CPD points must be rounded up or down to the nearest full or 0.5 CPD Point. The video must be at least 20 minutes long.

e-Learning Need Not Relate to the Practice of Law

In addition to obtaining CPD Points from undertaking law-related e-learning, you can obtain CPD Points from undertaking non-law-related e-learning if the programme:

1. Comprises significant intellectual or practical content; and

2. Deals primarily with, and seeks to extend your knowledge or skill in at least one of the following areas:

- Financial literacy;
- Information technology and computer literacy;
- Presentation and communication skills;
- Office productivity and management skills;
- Personal management and development skills;
- Any non-legal specialist knowledge relevant to your practice needs.

Where to Find e-Learning Programmes / Material

A number of videos are available through your ePortfolio account at https://www.silecpdcentre.sg/ in the 'Learning Media' section. You may also be able to locate suitable videos or programmes from the following sources:

- Singapore Academy of Law's LIFTED videos
- The Law Society of Singapore e-Learning Programme portal
- Harvard University Online Learning website
- Coursera
- edX
- TED Talks

Note: SILE is not affiliated with any of the above sources. You should determine whether a video meets the applicable requirements under the CPD Rules and Guidelines before recording your Private CPD Points in your ePortfolio.
