

Continuing Professional Development Scheme

Notice on Accredited Webinars

Effective Date: 1 March 2020

Last revised: --

1 In view of the exceptional circumstances brought about by the COVID-19 outbreak, the Singapore Institute of Legal Education ('SILE') will be accrediting eligible webinars run by the organisations listed in the Annex, to allow lawyers to obtain Public CPD Points without physically attending activities.

2 The accredited webinars will be taking place between 1 March 2020 and 30 June 2020. Accreditation of webinars may be discontinued at any time before 30 June 2020 in the appropriate circumstances, without prejudice to any webinars which have already been accredited at the point of time at which the practice is discontinued. Any such webinars will remain Accredited CPD Activities.

3 Accredited webinars will be listed alongside other Accredited CPD Activities in the Calendar of Accredited Learning Activities ('CALAS') at <https://www.silecpdcentre.sg/calas/>. If an Accredited CPD Activity is being delivered in a webinar format, the event title will be marked with the term '[WEBINAR]'. CALAS will be updated progressively, as and when webinars are accredited by SILE.

4 Event organisers may arrange technical trial runs before the actual webinars take place. Lawyers are encouraged to participate in the trial runs, if any, to ensure that they are properly set up to log into the webinar on the actual day. They may also wish to block out their schedules to prevent disruptions, and find a conducive space from which to participate, or use headsets in the alternative.

5 Please note that the SILE Attendance Policy applies to attendance at webinars.

6 Additional measures in response to the COVID-19 outbreak may be issued as necessary. Lawyers are advised to check that their ePortfolio accounts are updated with their current email addresses to ensure that they receive any updates in this regard and on the CPD Scheme generally.
