A. OVERVIEW OF CPD REQUIREMENTS

1. Introduction

- 1.1. Broadly, continuing professional development is a systematic and sustained process by which an individual not only maintains, but also improves and expands his/her professional knowledge and skills. The Continuing Professional Development Scheme ('CPD Scheme') is administered by the Singapore Institute of Legal Education ('the Institute') and formalises a lawyer's responsibility and commitment to being a professionally competent and relevant practitioner.
- 1.2. Phase 1 of the CPD Scheme was implemented on 1 April 2012. Phase 2 of the CPD Scheme took effect on 1 January 2015 and Phase 3 of the CPD Scheme took effect on 1 January 2017.
- 1.3. This Guide is based on the following sources: Legal Profession (Continuing Professional Development) Rules 2012 ('CPD Rules') and the Guidelines on the Continuing Professional Development Scheme 2017. The Institute recommends that you read this Guide together with – not instead of – these sources. Please also refer to the advisories which the Institute may issue from time to time.
- 1.4. This Guide sets out the CPD Requirements for CPD Year 2020 which will run from 1 January 2020 to 31 December 2020. CPD Requirements include CPD Points Requirements (discussed at sections B and C of this Guide) in addition to the requirements under rules 10, 11, 12(5) and 12(7) of the CPD Rules (discussed at section D of this Guide).

2. Lawyers required to undertake CPD Activities

- 2.1. For CPD Year 2020, all advocates and solicitors (including those practising as locum solicitors) holding a Singapore practising certificate ('Practising Certificate') and all foreign lawyers registered under section 36B of the Legal Profession Act ('the Act') must meet the CPD Requirements set out in the CPD Rules.
- 2.2. In this guide, the terms in the second column of the table below have the meanings set out in the third column:

a.	Group 1 Lawyer	A lawyer admitted to the Singapore Bar on or after 2 January 2015.
b.	Group 2 Lawyer	A lawyer admitted to the Singapore Bar between 1 January 2005 and 1 January 2015 (both dates inclusive).
c.	Group 3 Lawyer	A lawyer admitted to the Singapore Bar on or before 31 December 2004.
d.	S36B Foreign Lawyer	A foreign lawyer registered under section 36B of the Act.

7. Explanatory Note on non-accredited CPD Activities

7.1. You may obtain Private CPD Points for attending a conference, lecture, seminar or workshop which is not accredited by the Institute. The subject matter of the event must deal primarily with one of the following topics:

7.1.1. Matters relating to the practice of law;

- 7.1.2. Financial literacy (e.g. understanding financial statements, understanding audit standards);
  - 7.1.3. Information technology and computer literacy (e.g. use of word processing software, presentation software);
  - 7.1.4. Office productivity and management skills (e.g. understanding document and record management strategies, appraising and assessing a supervisee);
  - 7.1.5. Presentation and communication skills (e.g. writing, drafting, public speaking);
  - 7.1.6. Personal management and development skills (e.g. time management, resilience training); or
  - 7.1.7. Any non-legal specialist knowledge relevant to the solicitor's practice needs (e.g. shipping trends for a lawyer in admiralty practice, technology updates for an IT or IP lawyer, medical knowledge for a lawyer who handles personal injury claims).
- 7.2. These events must comprise significant intellectual or practical content, and seek to extend your knowledge or skill in one or more areas that are relevant to your practice needs.
- 7.3. Non-accredited CPD Activities may be conducted in Singapore or overseas.

8. Explanatory Note on in-house seminars

- 8.1. An in-house seminar is a conference, lecture, seminar, workshop or discussion group which is organised by your law practice solely or predominantly for the lawyers in the law practice. An activity organised for clients, even if attended by lawyers, does not qualify as an in-house seminar.
- 8.2. Your law practice is responsible for monitoring your attendance in accordance with the Attendance Policy, and giving the Institute a copy of the attendance list upon request.

9. Explanatory Note on small group discussions

- 9.1. A small group discussion is a seminar, workshop or discussion group organised by or for a group of lawyers or law practices.
- 9.2. In order to qualify for Private CPD Points, the discussion must be attended by at least 3 lawyers, and we recommend not more than 8 lawyers. The discussion must be organised in advance, and must be structured. For example, there must be a prepared agenda for the discussion, or learning objectives set out. An office meeting, reviews or discussions on on-going cases, or any other discussion which is not primarily for the purposes of substantive learning or does not have a learning agenda may not be considered a small group discussion.
- 9.3. A coordinator must be appointed for each discussion. The coordinator must: (a) monitor your attendance in accordance with the Attendance Policy; (b) send a copy of the attendance list to all participants of the discussion; and (c) cause notes of the discussion to be recorded and circulated to all participants. Items (b) and (c) must be done within 1 week from the conclusion of the discussion.

10. Explanatory Note on reviewing multimedia programmes etc.

- 10.1. You may obtain Private CPD Points for reviewing a multimedia programme or material.
- 10.2. In order to qualify for Private CPD Points, the programme or material reviewed must be structured. The programme must be of an identifiable and fixed length of time. Reviewing a programme which is not structured, e.g. a programme only requiring you to click through a series of slides, does not qualify for CPD points. In particular, reading or reviewing cases or articles does not qualify for CPD points.

- 10.3. Additionally, you must review the entire programme or material presented before you claim any Private CPD Points for doing so. This includes reading any accompanying materials and completing any accompanying quizzes or questionnaires. However, you may not obtain any private CPD points in respect of time spent reading any accompanying materials or completing any accompanying quiz or questionnaire. You must also ensure that you do not breach any intellectual property rights relating to the programme or material.
- 10.4. Reviewing the video recording of a previously-Accredited CPD Activity will allow you to obtain Private CPD Points (and not Public CPD Points). Do note that you may in some instances obtain a lower number of Private CPD Points compared to the number of Public CPD Points for the actual live event as the video may have been edited to exclude certain portions of the live event. Please ascertain the length of the programme carefully to determine the number of CPD Points you can obtain before updating your CPD records.
- 10.5. The Institute may, from time to time, identify specific programmes or materials which you may review and claim Private CPD Points for doing so.

11. Explanatory Note on writing articles

- 11.1. You may obtain Private CPD Points by writing an article and having it published in an approved publication.
- 11.2. Your article must:
  - 11.2.1. be at least 1,000 words long;
  - 11.2.2. deal primarily with matters relating to the practice of law;
  - 11.2.3. be of significant intellectual or practical content;
  - 11.2.4. be written and published in the English language;
  - 11.2.5. not be written or published in breach of the intellectual property rights of another party;
  - 11.2.6. not be pay-to-publish or self-published; (Note: a 'pay-to-publish' article means an article which has been published in return for payment from the author or on the author's behalf)
  - 11.2.7. not be an advertorial, book review, biography, autobiography or work of fiction;
  - 11.2.8. be published in an Approved Publication as defined below.
- 11.3. The relevant date for claiming the Private CPD Points is the date of the publication of the article, and not the date on which you completed writing it or submitted it to the publisher.
- 11.4. Your article must be published in an Approved Publication which:
  - 11.4.1. may be a book (e.g. textbook, reference book, monograph etc.), journal, periodical or any other publication of a similar nature;
  - 11.4.2. may exist in print or electronic format;
  - 11.4.3. is substantially about the law or the practice of law;
  - 11.4.4. is targeted predominantly at the legal community;
  - 11.4.5. is peer-edited and/or refereed if it is a journal or is similar to a journal;

11.4.6. is not a client, in-house or commemorative publication.

11.5. You may only claim Private CPD Points once in relation to a published article. You must not make another claim for an identical or materially similar article which has been published in another approved publication.

12. Explanatory Note on Approved Committees

12.1. You may obtain 2 Private CPD Points per CPD Year for serving as a member in an Approved Committee, i.e. any committee, sub-committee, working party or advisory panel of the Singapore Academy of Law, Law Society of Singapore and the Institute which meets the following criteria:

12.1.1. The work of the Approved Committee must deal primarily with matters relating to the practice of the law; and 12.1.2. The work of the Approved Committee must:

- (a) extend the knowledge or skill of a solicitor serving in the Approved Committee; or
- (b) contribute to the continuing professional development of a solicitor serving in the Approved Committee.

12.2. You may only obtain a maximum of 2 Private CPD Points per CPD Year regardless of the number of Approved Committees you serve on during the CPD Year.

12.3. You must have served at least 4 months of the term of your appointment within the CPD Year. Therefore, you must be appointed to the Committee on or before 1 September of a CPD Year before you may obtain the CPD Points for that CPD Year. The CPD Points may not be pro-rated.

12.4. Each of the Law Society of Singapore, the Singapore Academy of Law and Singapore Institute of Legal Education may determine whether a committee, sub-committee, working party or advisory panel it has respectively constituted meets the above criteria. You should check with the respective organisation which appointed you to find out if your committee is an Approved Committee.

13. Explanatory Note on Pro Bono Programme for Law Students

13.1. You may obtain 2 Private CPD Points per CPD Year for performing services in Approved Pro Bono Work under the Pro Bono Programme for Law Students. The list of Approved Pro Bono Work may be found at <http://www.sile.edu.sg/pro-bono-programme>.

13.2. You may only obtain a maximum of 2 Private CPD Points per CPD Year regardless of the number of Approved Pro Bono Works you supervise during the CPD Year.

14. Obtaining Public or Private CPD Points by teaching etc.

14.1. Apart from the above CPD Activities, lawyers will be able to obtain CPD Points for speaking, teaching or participating in a panel discussion in any conference, lecture, seminar or workshop which deals primarily with matters relating to the practice of law.

14.2. A lawyer who speaks or teaches etc. in other non-legal categories of learning activities e.g. financial literacy, office productivity and computer literacy, does not obtain any CPD Points.

- 14.3. A lawyer will obtain Public CPD Points for speaking or teaching at an Accredited CPD Activity and Private CPD Points for speaking or teaching at a non-accredited CPD Activity which deals primarily with matters relating to the practice of law.
- 14.4. CPD Points may only be obtained for speaking at a 'live' learning activity only. No CPD Points may be obtained for time or effort expended in making a video recording of a learning activity.
- 14.5. In general, a lawyer may obtain 3 CPD Points for each hour in which he is engaged as a speaker, trainer or member of a panel discussion. (This is in contrast to 1 CPD point for each hour for which a lawyer attends a CPD activity as a learner.) The minimum engagement period must be 20 minutes (excluding breaks) out of a minimum activity duration of 1 hour (excluding breaks), for which 1 CPD Point may be obtained. For a panel discussion, the duration of the entire discussion must last at least 20 minutes and the total activity duration shall be at least 1 hour. Each panellist will obtain CPD Points corresponding to the duration of the entire discussion.

C. ABOUT CPD POINTS

15. Calculation of CPD Points generally

- 15.1. CPD Points are counted in full or half points only. No other fraction or percentage of CPD Points will be allowed.
- 15.2. In calculating the duration of a CPD Activity, you must exclude any time allocated for breaks and refreshments. Reasonable time allocated for questions and answers ('Q&A') and panel discussions, however, may be included. If the Q&A portion is not facilitated by a chairperson, then a reasonable length for Q&A for a 1 hour activity is about 10 minutes.
- 15.3. If the duration of a CPD Activity does not result in full or half points, the number of CPD Points must be rounded up or down to the nearest 0.5 CPD Point. The same rule applies if the number of words in a published article does not result in full or half points.
- 15.4. To qualify as a CPD Activity, a conference, lecture, seminar, workshop or discussion group must be at least 1 hour long, excluding time allocated for breaks and refreshments. For reviewing multimedia programmes or materials, the programmes or materials must be at least 20 minutes long.
- 15.5. The examples in Table 1 illustrate how CPD Points are calculated for different kinds of CPD Activities:

Table 1: Examples on Calculation of CPD Points

Example 1: A seminar lasts for 1 hour, inclusive of a 10-minute refreshment break. You may not claim any CPD Points as the substantive duration of the seminar is less than 1 hour.

Example 2: A seminar lasts for 1 hour and 40 minutes. This translates to 1.66 CPD Points. You can obtain 1.5 CPD Points. (Rounded down)

Example 3: A workshop lasts for 2 hours and 45 minutes. This translates to 2.75 CPD Points. You can obtain 3 CPD Points. (Rounded up)

Example 4: The length of your published article is 2,400 words. This translates to 2.4 CPD Points. You can obtain 2.5 CPD Points. (Rounded up)

Example 5: You reviewed a multimedia programme which lasts for 20 minutes – which is the minimum length for this category of CPD Activity. This translates to 0.33 CPD Point. You can obtain 0.5 CPD Point. (Rounded up)

15.6. If you have any queries on calculating Private CPD Points, please contact us via the contact form at <https://www.silecpdcentre.sg/contact/>.

15.7. For Accredited CPD Activities, generally, the Public CPD Points to be allocated will be determined by the Institute and indicated on the registration form and other publicity materials for the activity.

16. Calculation of CPD Points for teaching, etc.

16.1. In general, a lawyer may obtain 3 CPD Points for each hour in which he or she is engaged as a speaker, trainer or member of a panel discussion. The minimum engagement period must be 20 minutes (excluding breaks) out of a minimum activity duration of 1 hour (excluding breaks), for which 1 CPD Point may be obtained.

16.2. For Accredited CPD Activities, generally, the Public CPD Points to be obtained by the speaker, facilitator etc. will be determined by the Institute during the accreditation process and communicated to the provider organising the activity. The Public CPD Points will be automatically updated in your SILE ePortfolio account when the attendance records for the activity have been processed.

16.3. To calculate the number of Private CPD Points obtained by teaching, etc., multiply the number of minutes of the engagement period by 3. Divide the resulting number by 60 to obtain the number of CPD Points. Where the resulting quotient is not a whole number or in a multiple of 0.5, the number of CPD Points must be rounded up or down to the nearest whole or 0.5 CPD Point.

16.4. The examples in Table 2 illustrate how CPD Points are calculated for various periods of engagement a lawyer undertakes teaching, etc. The engagement periods used for the calculation are based on the timings published in the respective activity programmes, rather than actual times.

Table 2: Examples on Calculation of CPD Points for Teaching, etc.

Example 1: You speak for 2 hours on a non-legal topic. You may not claim any CPD Points.

Example 2: You give an introductory welcome address which lasts for 15 minutes. You may not claim any CPD Points.

Example 3: Your speaking segment at a non-accredited legal seminar (according to the programme) lasts for 25 minutes.  $25 \text{ minutes} \times 3 \div 60 = 1.25$ . You will obtain 1.5 Private CPD Points (rounded up).

Example 4: After a number of speakers have spoken at a legal conference, you chair a panel discussion scheduled for 30 minutes based on the programme which overran to 40 minutes. Since CPD Points are not increased post-event even if the activity overran, the calculation of CPD Points will be based on the scheduled duration of the segment, i.e., 30 minutes  $\times 3 \div 60 = 1.5$ . You will obtain 1.5 Private CPD Points. Each of the Group 2 and Group 3 Lawyers and s36B Foreign Lawyers who was in the same panel discussion will also obtain 1.5 Private CPD Points.

Example 5: You speak for 20 minutes at an event which lasts for 30 minutes. You may not claim any CPD Points.

- 16.5. The following are frequently-encountered engagement periods and the corresponding CPD Points which a lawyer may obtain for teaching, etc.:

- 16.5.1. 20 minutes: 1 CPD Point;

25. SILE ePortfolio System

25.1. Instead of keeping a paper record, you may use the SILE ePortfolio system available at www.silecpdcentre.sg to keep a record of your CPD Activities. The use of the SILE ePortfolio for record keeping is optional but the Institute strongly encourages use of the SILE ePortfolio system.

25.2. The SILE ePortfolio is an easy way of keeping track of your CPD Activities. The records of your attendance at an Accredited CPD Activity (i.e. Public CPD Points) are automatically updated to your personal account so you only need to log in to update the records of your other CPD Activities to track your Private CPD Points obtained.

25.3. Your attendance at an Accredited CPD Activity may take up to a month after the event to be updated to your personal account. You will receive an e-mail notification whenever your account is updated by the system. Please notify us via the contact form at <https://www.silecpdcentre.sg/contact/> immediately if your account is updated with an activity you did not attend, or which you attended but without having complied with the Attendance Policy.

25.4. You will need to log into the system to update your e-mail account. Otherwise, you may not be able to receive any e-mail updates. You may also subscribe to or unsubscribe from a range of optional features available via the SILE ePortfolio system.

25.5. Disclaimer. Please note that the SILE ePortfolio system is a service provided for your convenience. The records of your participation in Accredited CPD Activities are based on information provided to us by organisers of accredited CPD activities. You may not rely on the data in the SILE ePortfolio system as conclusive proof of your having obtained the Public CPD Points stated in your records. You will still need to separately retain evidence of your attendance at Accredited CPD Activities (see paragraph 24) in case you are subject to an audit.

26. Complying with audit requirements
